

Bitcoin20X ($BTC20X) - Cookies Policy

Effective Date: August 17, 2023

This Cookies Policy explains how we use cookies and similar tracking technologies when you visit our website or interact with btc20x.com. This policy applies to all users of btc20x.com, and by using our website, you consent to the use of cookies as described in this policy.

1. What are Cookies?

Cookies are small text files that are stored on your device (computer, tablet, smartphone) when you visit a website. They help websites remember information about your visit, such as your preferences and settings, to enhance your user experience.

2. How We Use Cookies

2.1. Essential Cookies:

Some cookies are essential for the proper functioning of our website and enable you to navigate and use its features. Without these cookies, certain services may not be available to you, and the website may not perform as smoothly as expected.

2.2. Performance Cookies:

We use performance cookies to collect information about how visitors use our website, such as which pages are most frequently visited, and if users encounter errors. These cookies help us improve our website's performance and optimize its design to provide a better user experience.

2.3. Functionality Cookies:

Functionality cookies allow our website to remember the choices you make (such as language or region preferences) and provide enhanced features and personalized content.

2.4. Analytics and Tracking Cookies:

We may use cookies and similar technologies provided by third-party service providers, such as Google Analytics, to gather information about how you use our website. These cookies help us understand user interactions and patterns on the website, enabling us to make informed decisions about improvements and optimizations.

3. Third-Party Cookies

Some content on our website may be provided by third parties. These third parties may also set cookies on your device while you interact with their content. We have no control over these cookies, and you should review the respective privacy and cookies policies of these third parties for more information.

4. Cookie Management

4.1. Your Consent:

By continuing to use our website, you consent to the use of cookies as described in this Cookies Policy.

4.2. Opt-Out:

You can control and manage cookies preferences through your web browser settings. Most browsers allow you to accept, reject, or delete cookies. Please note that if you choose to disable cookies, some features of our website may not function correctly.

4.3. Do Not Track Signals:

Currently, there is no standardized response to "Do Not Track" signals sent by web browsers. As a result, we do not respond to such signals or alter our website's data collection and use practices based on them.

5. Changes to the Cookies Policy

We may update this Cookies Policy from time to time to reflect changes in our practices or for other operational, legal, or regulatory reasons. The date of the last update will be indicated at the beginning of this document.
